

|  |  |
|--|--|
| Coronary Angio CT Scan   | The Patient must send or bring to our clinic, an ECG, recent blood tests with renal function (glomerular filtration rate and creatinine), list of usual medication, namely for the heart and/or hypertension at least 2 days before the exam. If not contraindicated, you will be given an oral <math>\beta</math>-blocker to be taken at night on the eve of the exam after dinner. On the day of the exam you should make the usual medications if the health professional you spoke to the day before did not recommend stopping any medication. You should come with someone and with time availability. FASTING OF 4 H IS REQUIRED BEFORE THE EXAM |
| Chest CT Scan with contrast       Lung nodules detection and mediastinal evaluation | FASTING OF 4 H IS REQUIRED BEFORE THE EXAM   |